

The Discomfort Plus Chip

A US Patent Pending Technology

A complex distribution network called the Meridian System supplies vital energy through every part of the body, allowing it to function properly. Disrupting the Meridian System may cause disease, breakdown of the immune system, and other health related problems.

Nature's Frequencies has developed a variety of Holographic Chips designed to combat these disruptive problems in targeted regions.

For optimal results it is important to keep properly hydrated and drink plenty of water while wearing Nature's Frequencies Holographic Chips.

Nature's Frequencies Holographic Chips work naturally to support the healing and improvement of your health and overall well-being.

The Discomfort Plus Chip Benefits

The Discomfort Plus Chip is designed to assist the body in the relief of pain and improve recovery.

See Figure A, a before and after thermographic image of a subject with severe lower back pain. On the left "Before" image you can see that the lower back is inflamed and bright red. On the right "After" image, you can see that after using six Discomfort Plus Chips the inflammation appears to have decreased substantially.

The time in between thermographic images was approximately one half hour.

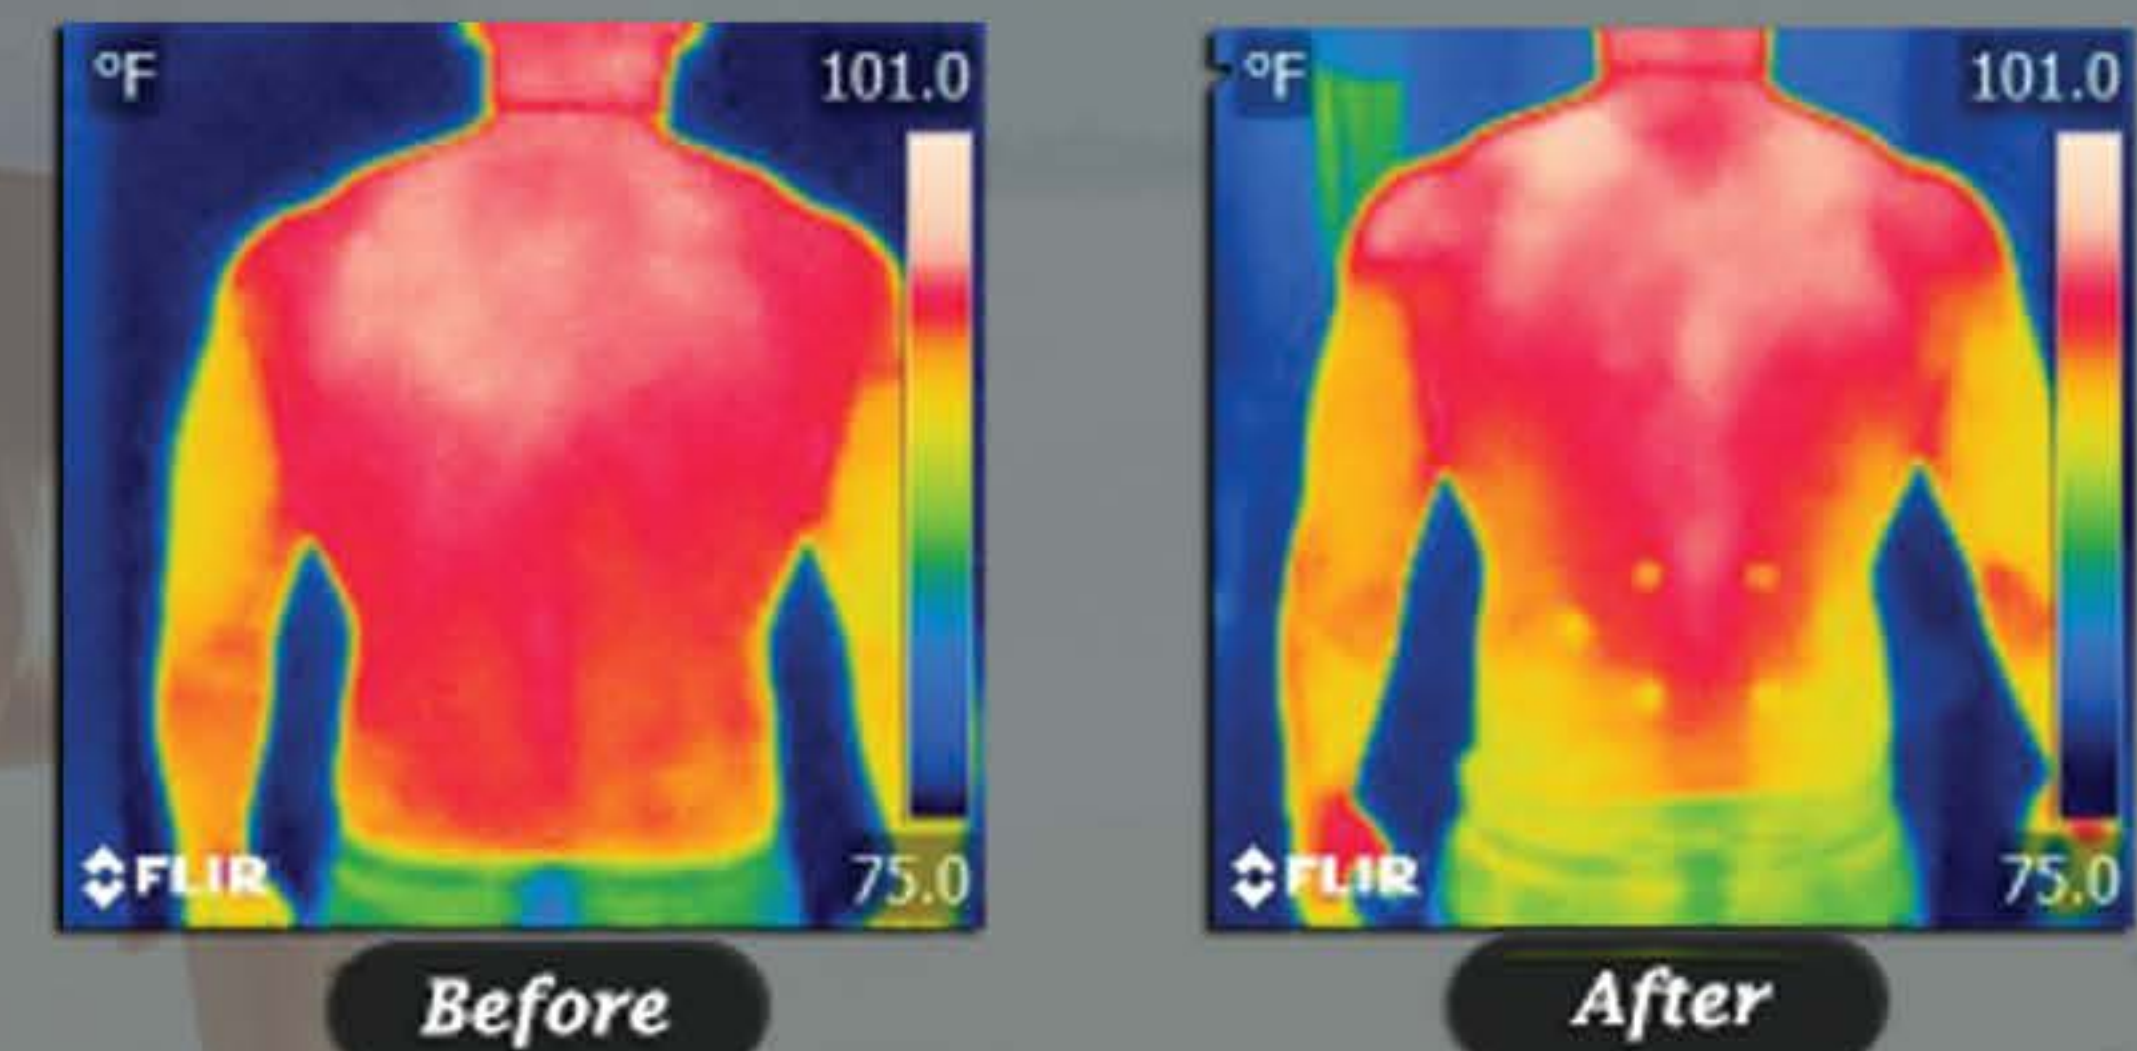

Instructions for Use

Peel and stick 1-3 Discomfort Plus Chips on area(s) of pain or discomfort, use more if needed to cover larger area.

Discomfort Plus Chips adhere best to clean, dry, hairless skin. If necessary, shave excess hair and secure Discomfort Plus Chip with athletic tape or small bandage.

Optimal use is up to 3 days. Chips are non-invasive.
